Warning by Central Intelligence Agencies

312. SHRI SURESH PACHOURI: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Central Intelligence Agencies have warned Government of possible strikes by Pakistani trained militants in New Delhi and Bombay following reports that a large number of them have infiltrated into India;

(b) if so, the intelligence forces have stated that after interrogation of some top militant leaders and foreign nationals nabbed by security forces revealed that Pakistani ISI had decided to send in trained militants from coastal borders of Gujarat and deserts of Rajasthan;

(c) if so, whether the ISI is trying to send in armed men and weapons through these circuits in view of the heavy snow of high mountains in the Kashmir Valley;

(d) whether the recent arrest of a large number of ISI men and other foreign nationals from various parts of the country including Bombay, Delhi, U.P. and Rajasthan were clear indicators of nexus between some overground and underground organisations; and

(e) if so, what action Government propose to take to deal with the situation?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI RAJESH PILOT): (a) to (c) yes, the Intelligence Agencies did share such general information about possible designs of Pak motivated militants.

(d) The recent arrest of a large number of ISI trained men in different parts of the country clearly brought out the nexus between some overground organisations with the under ground organisations of the smugglers.

(e) Government is alive to the situation and are taking all necessary steps in this regard which include gearing up of intelligence machinery, coordinated action by Central and State agencies including intelligence sharing, deployment of para-military forces as well as intensified patrolling in vulnerable areas.

Insurgent activities in Assam

313. SHRI SURESH PACHOURI: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Assam Chief Minister has held the Centre responsible for the sudden spurt in insurgent activities in the State;

(b) if so, whether the main reasons for increase in the terrorism in the North-east is due to the withdrawal of para-military forces from 56 companies to just a single company;

(c) if so, what is the number of batallions/companies at present in the State;

(d) whether the activities of extremists and the picture of the State of insurgency has been grave and insurgent groups particularly in trouble torn Nagaland are very severe;

(e) whether in these States bomb blasts, assassination attempts and genocide are on the increase;

(f) if so, whether the Home Ministry had also issued a warning to these States from January, 1994 onwards;

(g) if so, whether the Central Government has agreed to provide full force of para-military forces to these States to check and prevent insurgent activities in the States; and

(h) if so, what are the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P.M. SAYEED): (a) The Cheif Minister of Assam has denied that such an allegation was made by him.

(b) and (c) No Sir. 119 Coys of para-military forces are presently deployed in Assam.

(d) A few incidents of violence have, of late, been reported form Nagaland.

(e) Assam and Manipur witnessed violence in the recent past but the situation is now under control.

(f) to (h) The North-Eastern States have been advised to deal firmly with the law and order situation. Deployment of para-military forces in the North-Eastern States is reviewed from time to time. The Central Government has been rendering all possible assistance keeping in view the overall law and order situation and the availability of the forces.
